DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Drawings

2. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the closing means disposed in the main bag for blocking the opening, as claimed in claim 3 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Art Unit: 3616

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Jang et al. (US 6,827,368 B2.) See Figure 10, and col. 7, line 65- col. 8, line 25.

5. Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Kushima (JP 11-91493 A.) (see English language abstract and Figures 3 and 4.)

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 3616

7. Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Jang et al. (US 6,827,368) or Kushima (JP 11-91493 A) in view of Hurford et al. (US 5,718,450.) Both Jang et al. and Kushima teach side air bags with main bag members and sub-bags in the lower section of the main member and connected to the gas generator. Both additionally teach that the sub bags have openings. Jang et al. and Kushima fail to teach that the openings have closing means that open the opening when the gas pressure reaches a predetermined pressure. Hurford et al. teaches an opening, with a closing means (50) that includes tearable seams, from the lower chamber of a side air bag that opens to fill the upper chamber when the gas reaches a predetermined pressure (see col. 5, line 65-col. 6, line 23) which is used to prevent back flow from the head to the thorax chamber. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to modify either Kushima or Jang et al. to include the closing means, as taught by Hurford et al. in order to provide a vent that prevents backflow.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Wipasuramonton et al., Lachat et al., Haland et al., Okochi et al., Yamamoto et al., and Haidar teach side air bags with dual chambers of interest.
